

Phillip Millman is a seasoned finance executive, QFE, and board member with over 30 years of experience across the public and private sectors. His expertise spans the entire financial ecosystem, including capital markets, mortgage-backed securities, and government oversight.

He is a financial innovator and has used his significant expertise to save over $4.5 billion through advanced risk management. He led the business aspects of the government's largest plaintiff-side litigation, which led to the recovery of $27.1 billion in damages, and he played a pivotal role in drafting regulations required by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform Act.