

Tom Myers is the SVP of Partnership and Sales at Concord, bringing over 20 years of expertise in capital markets and clean energy finance across public and private sectors. Driven by a passion for advancing sustainable finance, Tom specializes in partnership development, brand building, and leveraging technology to scale innovative financing solutions. His experience spans solar (ABS), home improvement, state energy (regulated), and esoteric capital markets, with a strong track record in policy, regulatory compliance, and structured finance. Deeply engaged in the evolving landscape of environmental regulation and capital markets, Tom is recognized for building trust and delivering impactful results in clean energy finance.